Easter 2021

1 April 2021

Dear Parent / Carer,

We've had a busy few days celebrating the end of Lent and learning about the Easter story, and are looking forward to some well-earned rest over the Easter holidays. Everyone is quite tired!

Summer term starts on Monday 19 April, when hopefully all of our children (and staff) will be fully rested and ready to settle back into our school routine again and the fun that summer term brings!

Staff Changes

We want to say a big thank you to Ms Alcroft for the fantastic job she has done for us in Class 1 over the past few months. We are looking forward to welcoming Mrs Beattie back into Class 1 after Easter, and we also have Miss McLaughlin in Class 1 as a student teacher. The children will remember Miss McLaughlin from her placement with us last October.

Easter Service

Our Easter Service is in school on Thursday afternoon. Sadly, we can't go to church yet or invite parents / community in to share this festival, but we will take photographs. Revd. Rob Brown is also making his first visit into school for this service, and is bringing his guitar too!

Easter Quiz Sheet

Thank you to everyone who entered the Easter Quiz, and congratulations to Amy D for the winning entry.

Easter Egg Competition

We had some fantastic entries in our annual Easter Egg competition, and congratulations go to our prize winners, who each won an Easter egg. Prize giving is during our Easter Service on Thursday afternoon.

PTA

Our brilliantly supportive PTA have provided Easter treats for each pupil and also a special 'Act of Kindness' envelope for each pupil to use to share kindness with someone of their choosing. This is such a special touch showing care and thought for everyone in our school family and community – THANK YOU!

Finally, thank you to everyone for their support and generosity during the past few months. Your Christmas hamper and treats have kept the staffroom going. I hope you all have a wonderful, peaceful and chocolate-filled Easter! ENJOY!
